

Stefan Brisevac, CIM[®], CFP[®]

Investment Advisor

Born and raised in Kitchener, Stefan Brisevac is proud to serve the community he has always called home. He values building lasting relationships and takes pride in being the cornerstone that helps families grow, protect, and transition their wealth over the long term. Known for his approachable nature and dedication to his clients, Stefan is committed to helping families navigate life's important decisions with confidence.

When not meeting with clients, he can often be found coaching his two daughters on the soccer field. A lifelong soccer enthusiast, Stefan played on scholarship at the collegiate level and later competed in Ontario's semi-professional ranks.

Proud of his Croatian heritage and Canadian roots, Stefan values family, hard work, and community in everything he does.
