

Sue Corliss

Client Service Associate

Sue brings over 15 years of professional experience and a highly relationship-focused approach to her role. Originally from the East Coast, she brings an approachable style and a strong attention to detail.

She holds a Bachelor's degree from Mount Allison University and takes pride in supporting both clients and the broader team with care, clarity and precision.

Outside the office, Sue enjoys baking, a variety of creative hobbies and exploring her community with her husband and their dog.