Michael Pusaka, PFP®

Client Relationship Associate

Michael is a Client Relationship Associate with nearly a decade of experience in banking with a strong focus on wealth management and financial advice.

He brings a thoughtful, relationship-driven approach and commitment to delivering a high-quality client experience. Michael earned the Personal Financial Planner (PFP®) designation in 2026, reflecting his dedication to professional excellence and continuous learning.

Outside of work, Michael is a proud husband and father of three. He enjoys hosting family and friends, spending quality time with his wife and children, and starting his day with an early morning round of golf whenever possible.