

Tax & Retirement Planning Guide

At TD Asset Management Inc. (TDAM), we understand the importance of tax planning to investors.

There are many tax-efficient investment vehicles available to Canadians to help maximize after-tax income and grow their investment portfolios. For example, you may consider using a Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP) or a Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA) to save for retirement, a Registered Education Savings Plan (RESP) for a child's education or a First Home Savings Account (FHSA) to save for your first home. You may also want to take advantage of appropriate deductions and government sponsored benefits. In addition, consider whether it is advantageous to hold investments that earn relatively tax-efficient income, such as Canadian dividends or capital gains.

TDAM has created this guide to help outline some tax planning information. While the guide is useful, we encourage investors to seek qualified tax planning advice to develop a strategy that's appropriate for their unique situation.

Tax Planning

Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA)

The TFSA program is a way for individuals who are 18 years of age or older, and who are residents of Canada with a valid social insurance number (SIN) to set money aside tax-free throughout their lifetime. Contributions to a TFSA are not deductible for income tax purposes. Any amount contributed as well as any qualifying income earned in the account (for example, investment income and capital gains) is generally tax-free, even when it is withdrawn.

The maximum amount that an individual can contribute to their TFSA is limited by their TFSA contribution room.

The TFSA contribution room is the total amount of all of the following:

- the TFSA dollar limit of the current year
- any unused TFSA contribution room from previous years
- any withdrawals made from the TFSA in the previous year

All TFSA contributions made during the year, including the replacement or re-contribution of withdrawals made from a TFSA, will count against the contribution room.

Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP)

An Individual RRSP is a retirement savings plan registered with the CRA and to which an individual can contribute. Eligible RRSP contributions will reduce the individual's taxable income, and any income earned in the RRSP will be tax-deferred until the money is withdrawn from the plan as taxable income.

The program must be of at least three consecutive months' duration with 10+ hours of weekly course work. Other conditions apply. For more information please visit the Canada Revenue Agency website at https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/tax/individuals/topics/rrsps-related-plans/lifelong-learning-plan.html
Limits	$60,000 per participant.	$10,000 per year to the total LLP limit of $20,000.

RRSP Home Buyers' Plan (HBP)

RRSP Lifelong Learning Plan (LLP)

Repayment ¹¹	Generally, 1/15th per year with the repayment period starting the second year after the year of the first HBP withdrawal. To make the repayments, an individual has to contribute to their RRSP in the repayment year or the first 60 days of the following year.	Generally, 1/10th per year, with the repayment period starting the fifth year following the first LLP withdrawal. To make the repayments, an individual has to contribute in the repayment year or the first 60 days of the following year. Repayments may commence in the second year following the withdrawal, if the course is completed in the year of withdrawal. ¹⁰ Unless you are a person with a disability or you are helping a related person with a disability buy or build a qualifying home. ¹¹ Any amount that is not repaid will be added to taxable income for the year the repayment is due. You have up to 15 years to repay the HBP and up to 10 years to repay the Lifelong Learning Plan.

First Home Savings Account (FHSA)

A FHSA is a registered plan allowing prospective first-time home buyers to save for their first home tax-free (up to certain limits). Contributions are tax-deductible, and qualifying withdrawals to purchase a qualifying home—including from investment income—are non-taxable.

The FHSA participation room for the current year is the maximum amount that an individual can contribute and/or transfer into their FHSA in the year. Currently, the maximum an individual may contribute to their FHSA is $8,000. They can carry forward the previous year's unused participation room (a maximum of $8,000), if an FHSA account was opened in the previous year. The new contribution amount and the carried forward participation room may not exceed $16,000. Any excess contribution that is more than the allowable participation room, will be considered an excess amount and subject to a 1% tax every month until withdrawn or transferred out of the account. The Lifetime FHSA participation room is $40,000.

Generally, all contributions made to FHSAs and all transfers from RRSPs to FHSAs reduce the remaining lifetime FHSA limit. Conditions and restrictions apply. For more information, please visit the Canada Revenue Agency website at www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency.html.

Old Age Security Clawback

- If your net income before adjustments exceeds $90,997, part or the entire OAS pension amount may need to be repaid.
- The repayment amount is equal to 15% of the amount an individual's net income exceeds the threshold ($90,997), up to the full OAS payment.
- The OAS recovery tax is normally deducted on a monthly basis as installments or pre-payments of expected OAS clawback based off of the previous year's tax return.
- The full OAS payment is eliminated when a pensioner's net income is $142,609 or above (age 65 to 74), or $148,179 or above (age 75 and over).

Education Planning

Registered Education Savings Plan (RESP)

Details
Contribution Maximum	There is no annual limit for contributions to RESPs. For each beneficiary, the lifetime contribution limit to an RESP is $50,000.
Contribution Age Limit	Contributions can be made until December 31 of the 31st year following the year the plan is opened. Family plan only: final contribution must be made before the beneficiary's 31st birthday.
Plan Age Limit	RESP must be closed before December 31 of the 35th year following the year the plan is opened.
Penalty On Over-Contribution	When an over-contribution occurs, an individual will be required to pay tax in the amount of 1% per month on their share of the over-contribution until it is withdrawn.
Basic Canada Education Savings Grant (CESG)	20% on annual contributions made to all eligible RESPs for a qualifying beneficiary, to an annual maximum of $500 ($1,000 where there is unused grant room from a previous year). Additional contribution requirements apply to beneficiaries who are 16 or 17. Unused CESG grant room may be carried forward for possible use in the future. Lifetime maximum CESG amount per beneficiary is $7,200. Please refer to CRA website for more information.
Additional CESG^{21,22}	Family income up to $53,359: additional CESG on the first $500 in annual RESP contributions is 20%.
	Family income between $53,360 and $106,717: additional CESG on the first $500 in annual RESP contributions is 10%.
Canada Learning Bond (CLB)²¹	Provides $500 at first year of eligibility and $100 annually (to a maximum of $2000) until age 15 for children born after 2004 to families who meet certain income criteria (paid only in the years when the family's income qualifies).
Québec Education Savings Incentive (QESI)²³	10% on the first $2,500 of annual contributions (with greater support for families that qualify based on lower income) up to a lifetime limit of $3,600 per child. The child must be named as a beneficiary of an RESP, be a resident of Québec at the end of the year, and meet other eligibility requirements.
British Columbia Training and Education Savings Grant (BCTESG)	$1,200 one-time grant to eligible beneficiaries born on or after January 1, 2006. The last day to apply is the day before the beneficiary turns 9 years old. The child must be a resident of British Columbia at the time of the application, and meet other eligibility requirements.

Details

Educational Withdrawals	Educational Assistance Payment (EAP): CESG, CLB, amounts paid under a provincial education savings program, and the earnings on the money saved in the RESP. These are paid to the beneficiary and taxable as earned income for the beneficiary in the year that they are received.
	Post-Secondary Educational (PSE) Contribution Withdrawal: Payable to subscriber who may gift it to beneficiary or retain it for him/herself with no tax payable.
Non-Educational Withdrawals	Accumulated Income Payment (AIP): Subject to certain conditions (including the repayment of grants), income earned in the plan is payable to the subscriber who may be able to transfer the amount to his/her RRSP (subject to availability of RRSP contribution room). If taken as cash, the AIP amount is taxable based on subscriber's marginal tax rate plus an additional 20% penalty tax. Alternatively, such amounts may be paid (gifted) to a designated educational institution in Canada.
	Refund of Contributions (ROC): If a beneficiary is not eligible for an EAP, the withdrawal of contributions is not taxable, but generally trigger CESG repayments and could require the repayment of certain provincial grants.
