

You're Invited!

We are celebrating International Women's Day! and you are invited to Women and Wealth's 10 steps to financial security. This year's theme for International Women's Day is #ChoosetoChallenge. Join us as we challenge myths and break down barriers surrounding women and wealth!

This event is designed to help young adults learn good financial habits, provide guidance throughout key life events, and discuss the importance of financial literacy. Please feel free to invite your daughters, nieces, grand-daughters and friends.

Bring your daughter(s) or invite a friend and together learn more about planning for the future to help create your roadmap to help reach your financial goals.
