Client Service Associate

Tel: (514) 289-0754 | Emilie.Presse@td.com

Émilie Presse has been working with TD Wealth Private Investment Advice, since 2011. She has been a Client Service Associate with The Martin Advisory Group since 2014, where she plays a central role in managing administrative operations.

Additionally, she oversees activities related to regulatory requirements within the financial services industry and ensures the rigor of established processes. She also supervises a team member dedicated to compliance, helping to maintain high standards within the team. She is committed to delivering a seamless, professional, and personalized client experience.

Over the years, her role has expanded to include active involvement in the team's marketing. She is responsible for managing the website and developing client communications, including the design of birthday and thank-you cards, as well as producing the annual holiday season video and distributing content such as the "Your Market Minute" video series and "Your Market Podcast".

She has completed the Canadian Securities Course as well as the Conduct and Practices Handbook Course offered by the Canadian Securities Institute (CSI). Outside of work, Émilie enjoys reading and the arts and is the proud mother of two young daughters.
