Vy Nguyen is a Portfolio Manager with the Nguyen Pelletier Group at TD Wealth Private Investment Advice.

He is a seasoned wealth management professional with more than 33 years of experience in portfolio management, wealth planning, coaching, and leading high-performing investment teams. He leverages this extensive background to help clients achieve stronger outcomes for themselves and their families.

Vy holds the Chartered Investment Manager (CIM®) designation from the Canadian Securities Institute, the Financial Planner designation from the Institut québécois de planification financière (IQPF), and an MBA from the Université de Sherbrooke.

Over the past 14 years, Vy has advised high-net-worth individuals and their families, providing portfolio management services through private banks and wealth management firms across Canada and Europe. He is widely recognized by his peers as an excellent communicator and has led financial education seminars and community presentations throughout Quebec.

Vy has a very positive attitude and is a solutions-oriented individual.

He has been actively involved in his community for many years and has served on the boards of several charitable organizations. He currently sits on the boards of the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts Foundation and the Collège Sainte-Anne Foundation. A long-time supporter of the visual arts, Vy also serves as an ambassador for the TD Wealth art collection, promoting its unique attributes within the community.

On a personal note, Vy is the proud father of three children and enjoys an active lifestyle year-round, including alpine skiing and triathlon. He is committed to sharing his core values of family, health, and integrity with his clients.
